

GLORIA BIGELOW

"Ahead of the game! A natural talent."--Robert Klien - New York Comedy Expo

"Gloria Bigelow strikes the crucial balance by being both funny and political. In a world so deeply strained by the politics of the fundamentalist right, Bigelow's voice is a welcome addition to the often unpleasant stew of racist, sexist and homophobic comedians in America"--Stacey Ann Chin - Poet. Artist. Activist.

"The performances are witty, funny, and true-to-life for these six comics, especially Gloria Bigelow, who is absolutely charming to watch. As an out African- American lesbian, her personal stories of growing up in an all- Caucasian suburb are hilarious"--Edge Boston

"Funny! Polished and well on her way."--The Improv

Curve Magazine named Gloria Bigelow as one of the funniest lesbians in America (the America's Funniest Lesbians issue, Fall 2008).

Gloria has made multiple appearances on LOGO most recently in the movie Laughing Matters...Next Gen., the fourth installment of the Award winning Laughing Matters series. Next Gen. stars six of the country's hottest up and coming comics. Last year Gloria was the pre-show host of the first annual NewNowNext awards on LOGO.

You can also catch Gloria on Hot Gay Comics on Here T.V.

Subtle, disarming, and witty- Gloria Bigelow is a refreshing new comic who doses out humor in bite sized chunks- easy for the listener to swallow but relentless none the less. Coming to comedy from a background of acting she is an excellent observer of life and a natural improviser. An openly gay black woman, "she's got a bone to pick with everybody!" She does so by wittingly tackling issues from Low Lesbian Esteem to the Iconization of Snoop Dog, all done with a smile. With issues of sexuality, race, and gender at the forefront of her work she has become a one to watch on the national comedy scene.

Bitten by the comedy bug after moving to New York, Glo as she is called, seamlessly slipped into the world of comedy. She is seen at all of the top comedy clubs including The Improv, New York Comedy Club, Stand-Up New York, The Broadway Comedy Club and as a part of HomoComicus at Gotham Comedy Club. Picked up from a performance at the Improv, Gloria was the featured MC of the New York Comedy Expo opening for the finalist of the National Laugh Across America Competition. Recently she's performed as a part of the New York Underground Comedy Festival, Michigan Women's Music Festival and the 2009 Outlaugh Comedy Festival. A crowd favorite wherever she steps on the stage- from colleges to comedy clubs- Gloria's witty and honest brand of humor keeps her audiences laughing, thinking and wanting more.
